

Praying the LECTIONARY

Prayers & Reflections for Every Week's Readings
James Woodward & Leslie Houlden

'In the Christian life we all need all the help we can get — especially in reading the Bible. It is particularly crucial that the Sunday Bible readings are illuminated. Praying the Lectionary does this and will be of great value both to individuals and groups. The combination of biblical scholarship and pastoral wisdom offered here by James Woodward and Leslie Houlden makes it a stimulating and practical guide. I commend it most warmly.'

*Richard Harries,
The Rt Revd Lord Harries of Pentregarth, former Bishop of Oxford*

JAMES WOODWARD is Master of the Foundation of Lady Katherine Leveson and Director of the Leveson Centre for the Study of Ageing, Spirituality and Social Policy.

LESLIE HOULDEN worked as a curate in Leeds, and was Principal of Ripon College, Cuddesdon, from 1970 to 1977. His last post before he retired in 1994 was Professor of Theology at King's College, London.

Available from January 2007 through your local bookshop, or shop online at www.spck.org.uk. Alternatively, buy direct by emailing direct.order@marston.co.uk or by calling 01235 465 500.

£9.99 • ISBN-13: 978-0-281-05854-9

